THREE FRIENDS THAT OVERSTEP

JOB 2:11-13

Job – “I just wish I hadn’t even been born.”
(3:1-26)

Eliphaz – “You should heed your own advice...innocent people don’t have bad things happen to them...you should seek God. (4-5:27)

THREE FRIENDS THAT OVERSTEP

Job – “I can’t endure this...this is going to crush me...I’m loosing hope...what have I done to deserve this? (6-7:21)

Bildad – “You’re obviously in denial...you and your children are getting what you deserve...you’ve obviously forsaken God.” (8:1-22)

THREE FRIENDS THAT OVERSTEP

Job – “I don’t think God is present or listening...God is doing all of this and it isn’t fair...what’s the point?...God wants me to suffer. I know that this was your purpose.” (9-10:22)

Zophar – “You need to hush!...you deserve worse...who do you think you are? You need to repent.” (11:1-20)

THREE FRIENDS THAT OVERSTEP

Job – “The Lord is indeed mighty and He is doing all of this...it’s not fair.” (12-14)

Eliphaz – “You obviously don’t fear God...you’ve turned against God.” (15)

THREE FRIENDS THAT OVERSTEP

Job – “Ya’ll aren’t helping at all...miserable comforters you are...God has given me up...where is my hope now?” (16-17)

Bildad – “It’s simple Job...God punishes the wicked!” (18)

THREE FRIENDS THAT OVERSTEP

Job – “Still not helping!...He’s not answering me...He’s kindled His wrath against me.”
(19)

Zophar – “Wicked people are the ones who suffer in this life.” (20)

THREE FRIENDS THAT OVERSTEP

Job – “You’re not wrong but you’re not right either...seems to me that the wicked in this life are the ones living at ease and enjoying life.” (21)

Eliphaz – “Your wickedness must be something great.” (22)

THREE FRIENDS THAT OVERSTEP

Job – “Where is God?...Why isn't He answering me? (23-24)

Bildad – “Man can't truly stand righteous before God.” (25)
